ABOUT US

The Don Bosco Society, also known as the Salesians of Don Bosco, was founded in 1859 by St. John Bosco, who thought to educate and help homeless and orphaned child labourers in Turin, Italy. Today, the society has over 32,000 members working in 134 countries, offering educational and social services through schools, colleges, technical institutes, and youth centres. In India, the Salesians of Don Bosco have been operating since 1906. The government recognizes the Salesians as the largest non-governmental provider of technical education in India. Don Bosco Institute of Technology (DBIT) (a unit of Don Bosco Group of Educators), Okhla, is situated adjacent to Sukhdev Vihar Metro Station, Okhla Road, South Delhi. This college offers you opportunities to grow professionally and personally. It is affiliated with Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University, Dwarka, New Delhi, and is the best institute for BCA, BBA & B. Com (Hons.) in Delhi NCR. The first care of the management is to give Higher Education to the youth in an atmosphere of peace, justice, and social responsibility. Here, first-rate infrastructure with academic solid facilities is provided to render a dynamic grounding for success.

VISION

Inspired by the compassionate love of the Almighty, and fundamental human values, following the educative system of Don Bosco, we are committed to the creation of an educated, ethical, and prosperous society where equality, freedom and fraternity reign by imparting higher skilled education to poor and rural youth mainly of the 13 states of North India, which enable them towards integral human development.
